

TWO TRAGEDIES SHADOW LIFE OF MRS. HARRISON

Famous Writer Affected by Death of Son's Wife and Her Nephew.

Mrs. Burton Harrison, who was Miss Constance Cary and is an aunt of Howard Cary, found dead several days ago in the apartments of Lord Fairfax, at London, to-day told an Evening World reporter that she would never write nor lecture during her visit home. Mrs. Harrison is broken with grief over the death of her nephew, following closely upon the tragic death of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Francis Burton Harrison. Mrs. Harrison received a visit at her home, No. 815 Fifth avenue, from her brother, Clarence Cary, who left her a photograph of the young man taken shortly before he left for England. The Carys sailed to-day for England on the Kronprinz Wilhelm. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cary and Guy Fairfax Cary, the young lawyer and their son.

Shocked by Tragedy.

"The shock of the death of my nephew has completely unnerved me," said Mrs. Harrison, "I shall do no work while home for this time. I had been away for two years, chiefly staying at Cannes, France. To think that my arrival should bring me news of Howard's death."

Mrs. Harrison returned home several days ago on the Amerika steamship. "The public will understand why I cannot discuss my travels," she continued. "My visit home is an entirely private affair. I sorrow into my life a great sorrow. I have only thought at present for the handsome young man, my nephew."

Only three years ago Mrs. Harrison suffered the first great grief in the death of her husband. Then she went abroad, and within the year came a second great shock—the death of her daughter-in-law, formerly Miss Crocker, of San Francisco, who was thrown from an automobile and instantly killed. The third blow was the death of her favorite nephew—a reported suicide.

Mrs. Harrison declared that young Cary did not end his own life. She insists that his death was accidental, as do other members of his family.

Receives No Callers.

Mrs. Harrison received no callers at her magnificent Fifth avenue home. Her son, former Congressman Francis Burton Harrison, left last night for Buffalo upon a matter of pressing business, and the novelist was alone in the house with her friend and relative, Miss Fannie Cary, and the servants.

HIGH CLASS MEN AT YALE ECONOMICAL.

Seniors' Book Gives Some Interesting Statistics for the Past Four Years.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 8.—The Yale senior class book gives some interesting figures on the subject of the expenditures of Yale students. High scholarship men, it appears, live much more economically than do the low class men during their four years at Yale. The high scholarship men spent on an average $731 per year; the low scholarship men $1,244.

The average expense per man for four years is $4,146. Sixteen per cent of the men averaged under $500 a year. Twenty-four men earned all their expenses and nearly a hundred men earned their expenses through college in the year. Tennesson appears to be the favorite sport and Stevenson the most popular novelist, although R. D. Blackmore's "Lorna Doone" was the most popular book. Napoleonic history was voted the most interesting character in fiction. Mansfield and Maude Adams are the two favorites of the stage.

WILL ARREST RICH MAN.

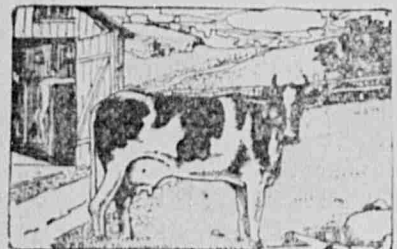

Coroner Wants Merchant Implicated by Girl in Her Confession. Minnie Rosenfield, nineteen years old, of No. 40 East Nineteenth street, who has been in a precarious condition at the Lying-in Hospital from an operation, died in that institution to-day.

Coroner Harburger, who took the girl's ante-mortem statement at the hospital last Thursday, stated that she had implicated a man whom she described as a wealthy Albany merchant, but he refused to make the name known unless the man died. This having occurred, Coroner Harburger is determined to have the man arrested if he can be found, and with this in view he is consulting the District Attorney.

$5 A DAY IN PRIZES.

On Thursday a new serial, "The Mysteries of Manhattan," will begin in The Evening World. Each installment will contain some familiar photographic scene in New York connected with the story itself. A prize of $5 will be paid to the reader who identifies the scenes. For full particulars see Thursday's Evening World.

OH! SEE THE COW!

This is a cow. The cow gives milk. Milk makes people well and strong. Where does this cow live? Out on one of the many farms offered for sale at ridiculously low prices through to-day's World Want Directory.

Don't you think it would be fine to live on a World Want Farm and have a nice cow like this—

AND SOME CHICKENS?

BLAST KILLS WORKMAN.

The new station for the New York Central Railroad claimed another victim to-day. Angelo Pecchini, one of the workmen, was caught under a slide of rock and crushed to death.

The accident occurred in the great excavation that extends from Forty-fourth to Fifth street, and from Lexington to Park avenue. There was a blast, a displacement of stone and earth and Pecchini didn't get out of the way in time. Another workman was killed in the same locality recently by a stone blown from a blast dropping on his head.

Pecchini was twenty-six years old and lived at No. 338 East Forty-third street.

When President Coughey, of the Orange Common Council, called for the report of the Street Committee at the meeting of the Council last night, Alderman Edward Cheatham, Chairman of the Street Committee, arose and gravely presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Conning the Consuls.

BY WALTER A. SINCLAIR.

I have just arrived from China with a load of trophy junk. Not to count the little nicknacks that have filled my steamer trunk. What a lot of souvenirs the good old Consuls made me pack! Why, if I should ask, each one would give the shirt from off his back! For each Consul seems quite anxious now to hold his little job. And he knows the State Department with his graft could play some hob.

I have just arrived all loaded with a lot of trophy junk—With the pelts of caribou, with an elephant's big trunk. Two the feathers of a peacock from the Consul at Whang Bang. And the polar bearskin bath rug from the man at Kelliang. While the Consul out at Foo Choo gave the famous Foo Choo lyre. Which he thought was just the ticket to protect him from a "fire."

The Consul up at Sham Shu gave his little folding-bed. And the agent at Gazziwell gave a ruby, large and red. The Consul at H. H. H. gave a dozen square of Scotch. While the fellow out at Doo Dad handed in his grandpa's watch. The rice wine pleased me greatly, so I toted home a case. Which was given by a Consul who has hopes to hold his place.

Some big diamonds they gave me, and some silk robes, never donned. All to prove how very neatly U. S. Consuls can be conned. And it makes me very happy, save whenever I may think Of one poor deluded Consul, who was loaded up with drink. I must throw the switch and send him on the private line side track. For he handed me a lesson, and I'm out to hand it back.

TWINS APPROVED BY ALDERMEN

City Council of Orange Makes Resolution in Favor of President.

When President Coughey, of the Orange Common Council, called for the report of the Street Committee at the meeting of the Council last night, Alderman Edward Cheatham, Chairman of the Street Committee, arose and gravely presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, The good wife of the able leader of the minority on the floor of this Common Council has shown her firm adherence to the sound Republican doctrine of anti-race suicide, as embodied by President Roosevelt, by presenting her husband with twins, said to be two lusty specimens of the benign influence of government under Republican control, he is hereby Resolved by the Common Council of the City of Orange, that the congratulations of this body be hereby extended to Alderman and Mrs. Thomas A. Davis upon this valued acquisition to their family and to the rapid increase of population of this city."

Mr. Davis sent out for cigars.

"NO CURE, NO PAY"

How Leading Druggists Sell Hyomel, the Guaranteed Cure for Catarrh.

Hegeman & Co., 200 Broadway, and all branches, and Riker's Drug Stores, in this city and Brooklyn, and the leading druggists in other cities and towns have an unusual offer to make to our readers, one that will be of the greatest value to many.

For some years Hegeman & Co., 200 Broadway, and all branches, and Riker's Drug Stores in this city and Brooklyn, and the leading druggists in other cities and towns have been watching the results from the use of Hyomel, a treatment for catarrh that cures by breathing medicated air, absolutely without any stomach dosing. The results have been so universally successful that they feel justified in making a public offer to treat the worst case of catarrh in New York, with the understanding that if Hyomel does not cure the treatment will cost absolutely nothing.

People who have spent large sums with catarrh specialists, deriving but little benefit, or the many who have swallowed stomach remedies in the vain hope of curing catarrh, have experienced almost immediate relief from the use of Hyomel, while the continued treatment for a short time has resulted in a complete and lasting cure.

The regular Hyomel outfit costs only one dollar, and consists of a neat pocket inhaler that can be carried in the purse or vest pocket, a medication dropper and a bottle of Hyomel. If this is not enough for a cure, extra bottles of Hyomel can be obtained for 50 cents.

Hegeman & Co., 200 Broadway, and all branches; Riker's Drug Stores, New York City and Brooklyn, positively guarantee a cure, if Hyomel is used in accordance with directions, or they will refund the money.
